

Mitigation Banking in Central Florida “Lessons Learned and Future Trends”

Presented by the Central Florida Association of Environmental Professionals

Thursday September 16, 2010

8:30am- 1pm

Orange County Extension Office
6021 South Conway Road, Orlando

Agenda:

8:30am- Registration and Breakfast

9am- Presentations Begin

•Intro- Sheri Lewin and Victoria Colangelo
“History and Overview of Mitigation Banking”
and “Financial and Economic Benefits”

•SFWMD- Susan Elfers
“UMAM, Success Criteria and Credit Release”

•SJRWMD- Jennifer Cope
“Post Permit Compliance”

•Hopping, Green and Sams, P.A.-Amelia Savage
“Legal Considerations”

•US Fish and Wildlife Service- Connie Cassler
“Conservation Banking”

12pm- Networking and Lunch (provided)

Several mitigation bank representatives will be present to share information about their projects including:

- Environmental Resource Marketing
- Mitigation Resources
- Mitigation Marketing
- Blackwater Creek Mitigation Bank
- Orange County Green PLACE

If you would like to have a table to highlight your mitigation bank, sponsorships are available.

Please contact Jennifer Thomson for more information.

Please RSVP by Friday September 10th

Jennifer Thomson 407-858-6100 X 3818

jthomson@sfwmd.gov

www.cfaep.org

CFAEP members may attend this workshop at no cost. The fee is $50 for all others and includes membership to CFAEP.